Michael Collins: Discovering History's Heroes

James Buckley

Jeter Publishing presents the second nonfiction biography in a brand-new series that celebrates men and women who altered the course of history often without recognition.

On July 16, 1969, a Gemini rocket lifted off from Kennedy Space Center in Florida. Previous launches had focused on getting astronauts into space, docking two spacecraft, and even walking in space, but this mission was different. Ida B. Wells: Discovering History's Heroes

Diane Bailey

Jeter Publishing presents a brand-new series that celebrates men and women who altered the course of history but may not be as well-known as their counterparts.

Ida B. Wells was an African-American journalist and activist who led an anti-lynching crusade in the United States in the 1890s.

On one fateful train ride from Memphis to Nashville, in May 1884, Wells reached a personal turning point. Having bought a first-class train ticket, she was outraged when t...

The First Dinosaur: How Science Solved the Greatest Mystery on Earth

Ian Lendler, C.M. Butzer

Join early scientists as they piece together one of humanity's greatest puzzles—the fossilized bones of the first dinosaur!

Dinosaurs existed. That's a fact we accept today. But not so long ago, the concept that these giant creatures could have roamed Earth millions of years before humans was unfathomable. People thought what we know as dinosaur bones were the bones of giant humans. Of large elephants, even.

The Plastic Problem

Rachel Salt

The shocking truth of plastic's impact on our planet -- and what we can do about it.

The data is in and it's bad. We create and throw away too much plastic, and it is killing our planet. However, too many people have very little idea about just how far this problem reaches, and those who do know feel...

Love, Mama

Jeanette Bradley

A modern mommy-love board book about a young penguin who learns that a mother's love is never too far away.

When Mama goes on a trip, her baby penguin, Kipling, knows she'll return home soon—yet he still can't help but miss her.

After all, Pillow Mama won't read, Picture Mama won't laugh, and Snow Mama is too cold to cuddle.

But when Kipling receives a special delivery from Mama,

If Animals Celebrated Christmas

Ann Whitford Paul, David Walker

In this unabridged board book conversion of the jacketed hardcover, members of the animal kingdom celebrate the Christmas season.

If animals said Merry Christmas like we do. . .how would they say it? Tortoise would hiss a holiday wish, Crane would croon joyful carols, and Mama and Papa Buffalo would kiss beneath the mistletoe. Across the animal kingdom, every creature would celebrate this magical season.
